2006 Hyundai Sonata

Price: 2000 obo

For sale is a 2006 Hyundai Sonata with ~216,600 miles. It is a good daily driver, or at least has been since I bought it. The current registration is valid until March 2023. A smog check was performed in February 2022, so it should be good for another year and a half. A few notable issues with the vehicle: A/C does not work, rear struts are going bad, leaky valve cover (not noticeable for short drives), and the idler/tensioner/serpentine belt most likely need replaced.
